4- line poem where every line ends with a word that strictly rhymes with the word "silver"

- a) qwen ai

The frozen lake, a glassy sliver,
A mirror made of pure quicksilver,
Beneath the pale and moonlit silver,
That breaks into a fragile sliver.

- b) chat gpt

Moonlight settles softly on the silver
Dreams drift quietly beside the silver
Stars paint the darkness over silver
And dawn awakens, bright with silver

- c) Gemini

Note: Because "silver" famously has very few true perfect rhymes—such as "chilver" or "quicksilver"—this poem uses its exact, strict phonetic rhyme partner, alongside an exact compound match.)

The moonlight casts a pale, cold chilver,
Upon the creek and rushing river,
Where shadows dance and waters shiver,
Lit by a flash of quicksilver.
